Ulrich Minifiles are the perfect answer for filing large documents where space is at a premium and security is important. Minifiles share all the important features and quality of the full size Ulrich Planfile. Fire-resistant construction, insulated double-steel walls, a lock and casters for easy mobility are all standard, but in a space saving 14 inch profile. One Minifile holds 1400 active documents while requiring 60 percent less space than flat drawer files.

Minifiles are available in three standard sizes and include our unique spring compression system. This system with its reinforced folders holds documents perfectly smooth and secure while allowing for quick and easy filing. All filing is done at waist height and Minifiles can be easily configured to store multiple sizes in the same cabinet. If space-saving, secure, convenient filing for your large documents is important, Ulrich Minifiles are the perfect solution.

Flat drawer files require 24 sq. ft. of space with drawer open, not to mention space required in front of opened drawer.

Minifile requires only 7.8 sq. ft. of space with shelf open. That is 70 percent less space!
